TRADITIONAL QUALITY“

*May 21 – 23, 2014
Štrbské Pleso – hotel Patria
Slovak Republic*

GOALS OF INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE

The main goal of the international conference is to gain knowledge on safety and quality of beef, pork, mutton and goat meat in relation to intravital impacts, technological and meat handling procedures, on the production of meat of slaughtered animals. In the area of meat products is the focus of scientific conferences to assess the food safety and quality, familiar with modern techniques of production. Highlight the deficiencies of quality and resources to improve quality through the use of modern butchery technologies, applications of additives and ingredients and packaging materials in order to return to traditional quality of Slovak products. Evaluate the impact of National and Community legislation on safety and quality of produced meat products.
